

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air a commercial-free anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

This amounts to a 90 minute commercial-free advertisement for the RNC and Bush. Sinclair should not be allowed to do this and only the FCC can stop it. Alternatively, the DNC should be able to air a commercial-free program of their choosing in the same time slot a day later. What happened to the fairness doctrine? The right-wing control of the media is now far reaching and this threatens the fabric of our democracy.

Please take action to restore our democracy. It should be a paid add at standard rates if it is aired.
